Liturgical Reflection: Sing to the Lord

Singing is part of Catholic worship. “By its very nature song has both an individual and a communal dimension. Thus, it is no wonder that singing together in church expresses so well the sacramental presence of God to his people.” (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Sing to the Lord, no. 2). As we raise our voices as one in the prayers, dialogues, and chants of the Mass, most especially in the Eucharistic Prayer, as well as the other hymns and songs, we give our individual voices to the great hymn of praise and thanksgiving to the Triune God.

Time on My Hands

Daylight Saving Time ends this weekend. If you’re attending Saturday Mass, turn your clocks back an hour tonight. If you are here Sunday, hope you remembered to make the adjustment to clocks last night!

Clergy Conference

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday this week, the priests and deacons of the Diocese will gather with Bishop Mark Barchak for their Pastoral Conference at Seven Springs. In order to make it possible for all active priests and deacons to attend this important meeting, emergency coverage will be provided by: Rev. Leonard Blostic, TOR (St. Joseph Friary, 695-5802) for Huntingdon County; and Rev. Raymond Crosser (941-2193) for Bedford and Fulton Counties.

R.O.C.K. in Huntingdon

Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church invites you to the sixth in their continuing series Reviewing Our Catholic Knowledge. The next quarterly session will be held in Trinity Hall on Thursday evening November 17th at seven o’clock. “A Catholic Study of Genesis Chapters 1-12: Not a Creationism View” is the title (please bring your Bible). The guest speaker is Rev. William T. Miller, S.J. Father is professor at Saint Mary’s Seminary in Baltimore and has published two books. Some of his works will be for sale at the presentation. Refreshments will be served. No charge to attend.

Changes Are Coming!

Beginning with Advent on November 27th, all Catholic churches in America will start using the new translation of the Roman Missal. We have been using the same responses for so long that it may be difficult for us to learn the new wording. There are not that many new words, but established habits are hard to change. If you think we have it bad, pity the priests who have many more new things to learn. Have patience with yourself and with Father White as we all go through the learning process. We are now using the laminated cards in the pews to help us with the changes; as Advent begins, we will have new missalettes to guide us. The November 27th issue of MagnifiKid is an excellent guide to all the changes.

Food and Clothing

Times are tough, so Paraclete Ministries and the Broad Top United Methodist Charge would like to help those in need by offering free food and clothing on Saturday November 19th, 9:00-3:00 at the Broad Top Community Center. Please let those in need know about this event. For information, or to donate canned and dried goods, call Heather 635-3347 or Tammy 448-3885.

Remember the Departed

November is the month of all souls. A book naming all the faithful departed is available for you to include your friends and family who are no longer with us. Members of this year’s confirmation class will be soliciting names. Although the individual names will not be read aloud, the book will be placed near the altar for the entire month so we can pray each week for all our loved ones written in the book.

Spaghetti Dinner & Fair

Carmelite Community of the Word sisters present their annual Pre-Christmas Fair and Spaghetti Dinner next Sunday the 13th at Bishop Guilfoyle High School in Altoona, 11:00 AM-3:00 PM (dinner until 2:00).

Madrigal Christmas Feaste

The 41st Annual Madrigal will be presented at Mount Aloysius College in Cresson the weekend of December 3rd-4th. The show fills up quickly each year, so make reservations ($40 per person) early. Call 886-6319 or visit mtaloy.edu/madrigal on line.

Really Know Your Faith?

Not all of our young people are attending CCD classes. Parents, please take the responsibility for bringing your children to Mass on Sunday, then encouraging them to stay for lessons at their grade level. Adults can sit in on the RCIA sessions. That way, both adults and children will know more about our Catholic Christian faith!

300 Club Winners

We have been asked to publish the weekly winners. Past winners: Judy Ford, John Zelanko, Dena Baker, Zane & Eugennie Treece, Evie Macrie, Barb Green, and Joe Green. Last week’s winner: Paul McCabe.

Rosary Society Projects

For your convenience, forms are available on the back table if you wish to nominate someone to receive a personal care bag. Also, envelopes are there if you would like to help purchase poinsettias to be placed near the altar at Christmas time.
